THERE ARE GAINS FOR ALL OUR LOSSES

*There are gains for all our losses,
There are balms for all our pains:
But when youth, the dream departs,
It takes something from our hearts,
And it never comes again.*

*We are stronger, and are better,
Under manhood's sterner reign:
Still we feel that something sweet
Followed youth with flying feet,
And will never come again.*

*Something beautiful is vanished,
And we sigh for it in vain:
We behold it everywhere,
On the earth and in the air,
But it never comes again.*

♦ ♦ Dedication ♦ ♦

The class of 1956 extends its most sincere thanks to Miss Marchetti and Miss Graff for their unequalled leadership during our four years of High School. Their quiet, and unassuming manner, tireless effort, deep understanding and genuine interest in their responsibility, have lighted the way and enabled our class to establish a fine record. May this dedication in some small measure, express our humble appreciation.

.. Appreciation ..

ANGELO D'ALEXANDER

Angelo D'Alexander

Our Alma Mater glows with justifiable pride as She contemplates the achievements of Her instrumental music program. For more than two decades our band has spread the fame of Kulpmont High School far and wide. Music lovers in our area have been alternately delighted by the sensuous symphonic melodies of the concert hall, and thrilled by the military marches on the football field.

Our band has served our community at outdoor summer entertainments, and in commemorative parades on National Holidays. It has marched in parades in competition with other bands and has brought home numerous prizes. Never too large in numbers, our "Blues and Whites" have always impressed the public with their excellent music, perfect drills, and their corps of high-stepping majorettes.

Professor D'Alexander has been director of the band since its inception. As a member of Kulpmont's most talented musical family, he has a genuine love of good music and an ardent desire to inspire others to play it well.

This tribute goes to him in recognition of his fine achievements to date.

Our school days here . . .
are past and gone, . . .
But we will have . . .
our memories.
Long will our hearts . . .
remember each joy, . . .
That bound us in . . .
Sweet friendship here.

Now the time has come . . .
for us to part, . . .
With saddened hearts . . .
We bid farewell.
To our teachers and our Alma Mater,
We pledge devotion to you.

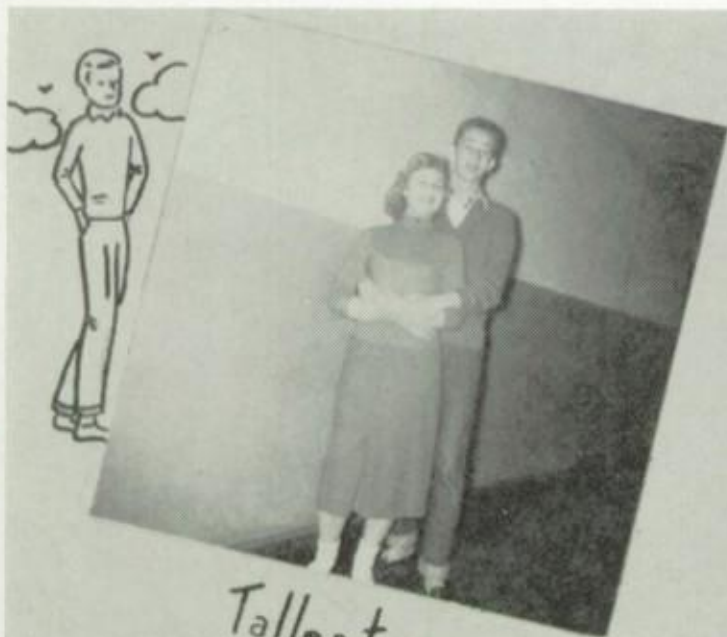

Our hopes, and fears, our aims are one,
We'll always be . . .
so true to you.
Now we bid farewell to Kulpmont High School,

We the Class of 1956, who are about to leave these halls of learning to embark on the highway to success, do hereby make public and declare our last will and testament and bequeath the following:

TO THE FACULTY: our sincere appreciation and deepest gratitude for their patience and understanding in guiding us along the rocky path of knowledge.

TO THE JUNIORS: our study halls. We hope they make better use of them than we did.

TO THE SOPHOMORES: we leave our serious attitude toward life. We hope they will emulate it.

TO ALL THE OTHER UNDERCLASSMEN: we leave our willingness to participate in all scholastic athletic activities.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Bobbie Allen leaves her singing ability to any needy member of the Glee Club.

To Joe Kinger goes Joe Alonso's good looks and suave manner.

Johnny Altomire's skill in basketball is to be carried on by "Smokey" Daniels.

Anne Marie Becker's frequent visits to Martz's go to Dolly Kubitski.

The friendly manner of Mary Lou Belfonte is given to Dot Kelnock.

Jimmy Brown's smart everyday attire is left to Daniel Rustchak.

Ruth Brown's position as Drum Major will be taken up by Barbara Moleski.

Donna Mayernick is lucky to receive the sparkling personality of Peggy Bubnis.

The fun-loving attitude of Josie Buccanero goes to "Angel" Avellino.

"Mickey" Buckwash leaves her mathematical skill to Bobby Bressi, who is in great need of it.

Ruth Ann Conni's title of "Best Dressed Girl" is passed on with pride to a most fortunate girl, Louise Witowski.

Charles Criniti leaves his Jitterbugging "skill"?? to Arthur Murray.

Class of 1956

by Pat Secula and Jeanne Pasterski

"AS TIME GOES BY"

As time goes by and the day December 31, 1976 approaches, we find the vast city of Kulpmont to be the scene of a reunion of the Kulpmont High School Class of '56.

The city is buzzing with chatter of the gala celebration to be held in the elite Medos Mansion, located in the suburbs of the busy city. NAN MEDOS, proprietor of the restaurant, had long anticipated the all-important reunion, and seems to be much elated because AL MURAWSKI, a great comedian actor, will be present to play the part of Master of Ceremonies. It is a known fact that his attractive assistant, RUTH BROWN, will accompany him.

For the pleasure of the music lovers celebrating the occasion, there will be the soft music of THERESA LONG and her famous all-girl orchestra, along with the voice of the most popular crooner of the day, WALT FESNIAK.

The people of Kulpmont and the surrounding areas are startled by the announcement of GEORGE MOLNAR, a television news commentator, that the President of the United States, EDWARD DAVIES, will attend the much-talked-about affair, with PAT PONTO, his private secretary. George added that General RAY KALOKITAS will make a special flight across the Atlantic Ocean to be in Kulpmont on December 31. The four-star general will make the flight in one of the latest airplanes designed by EDWARD DURAN.

As the daily paper, "The Kulpmont Gazette," is printed, its female editor, BERNICE WERY, points with pride to the columns of MICHALINE BUCKWASH, her chief reporter, whose most important assignment now is to cover all the news of the famous reunion. The comic page of the paper is filled with the ever-popular cartoons of ALEX LASKOSKI. The gossip column, by ANNA MAE WARHOLIC, says that RON MARSHALEK, a confirmed bachelor, will attend the affair alone, and that BILL YARZINSKY, operator of a lonely hearts club, has appointed PAT SECULA as his new secretary. The sport page contains comments of the successful football season at Kulpmont High School by the coach TONY SWATSKI. It also features an interview of RON YEZIERSKI, a famous ping-pong champion, by FRANK MIRARCHI, the sports editor.

In the heart of the city, a shiny, new Cadillac belonging to JACK MALICK, man about town, is being driven by JOHN STAREGO, his chauffeur, to a large, modern service station, owned and operated by EUGENE DURAN. The Duran Service Station is the scene of a heated argument between JOSEPH HUTCHKO, school director, and TOM MUDRY, proprietor of a large trucking company, about the age of JO ANN PUPO, a much photographed model.

At this time of the day, the television sets of the locality are focused on "Spotlight," a program with JOE MOLESEVICH, the most popular disc jockey of them all. Today, he will spin some old-fashioned "rock and roll" platters of JOE "DADDIO" GOODELUNIS, and interview JOE ALONSO concerning his latest motion picture "Love Passed Me By," written and directed by MICHAEL PEEK.

The local "Quality Market," one of a chain of meat markets, owned and operated by GIL DOMANSKI, is the scene of an everyday discussion among RUTH ANN CONNI, ROSE MARIE NESTICO, and ANN MOLESEVICH, our city's housewives, of today's topic, the career of JO ANN GRISCAVAGE, well known star of the ballet.

As the time for the gathering draws near, the telephones of the city are buzzing with the latest comments about the affair, and it seems that telephone operators, RITA WALNOCK, MARGARET BUBNIS, MARGARET MARINELLI, and MARY ANN

"AS TIME GOES BY"

OLBRISH, are kept quite busy. The receptionist in the Bell Telephone Company, CATHERINE KENINITZ, pretends that she is not at all excited by the presence of PAUL RIDILLA in her office. It seems that Paul has asked to escort her to the reunion, and she is wondering how it will feel to date a major league baseball umpire.

As the time for the celebration to commence is but minutes away, Nan Medos gives her waitresses, ANGELINE POPONIAK, MARY ANN KORENKEVICH, and ROSE MARY ZANESKI some last minute instructions. The doorman, WALTER LITWIN, takes his place and begins to await the coming of the members of the "Class of '56."

A taxi driven by LEN DOMANSKI, brings the first of the guests to arrive. Out of the taxi steps JANET PUPO and ANITA PASCAVAGE, modern angels of mercy, along with MARGARET SASSANI and IRENE KRAFT, nurses aides.

The next to arrive in a shiny black car are BOB MURDOCK, private detective, and SAM MIRIELLO, the city's district attorney. At this time an armored car approaches the restaurant, and out steps PHILLIP MEYER, multi-millionaire.

RONNY DUBBS, conductor of a symphony orchestra, arrives with JOHN FULGINITI, owner of the Fulginiti line of drug stores, and JIM PROSSER, a cigarette manufacturer, who has just returned from an important business engagement in California.

The United States Air Force is being represented by Colonels MIKE STEWART, ANGELO SINOPOLI, and CHARLES CRINITI.

MARION DE ANGELO and GERALDINE PEDRON, who are now beauticians, arrive in exquisite gowns made by ANNA WARGO, their seamstress.

THERESA TAKACH, president of the Takach School of Business, and JOAN SCHAFFER, her companion and secretary are seen to be in the midst of an interesting conversation with CHARLES MICHALOWSKI, a local shoe salesman, and MICHAEL SHIMKO, the proprietor of Shimko Dairy.

ROBERTA ALLEN, ANNA MARIE BECKER, and SHIRLEY MOYER, who are now Waves, seem to wonder if JOE MILEWSKI, WILLIAM HUXTA, and JIM BROWN, all local politicians, will be able to keep their minds off politics to hear the speech being made by JOSEPH SCICCHITANO, famous chemist.

MARIE SEPRINSKI, now married to a millionaire, arrives wearing a beautiful mink stole and gown designed by "THEODORA" (GRECO), who also is a member of the Class of '56, arrives in one of her own creations, which is stunning and original.

JEAN PASTERSKI, a well known artist, acclaimed for her most recent painting, "Lady in Velvet," arrives in time to exchange a few comments with ED MELNICK, a partner in the Sunshine Beverage Company, about the interior decorations of JOHN SZCZEPANSKI.

MIKE FANTANAROSA, who laid the brick foundation of the Medos Building, arrives with JIM FISHER, the ladies' man, who looks quite handsome in his "tux," in time to have a friendly chat with JOHN ALTMIRE, about his experience as an All-American football star.

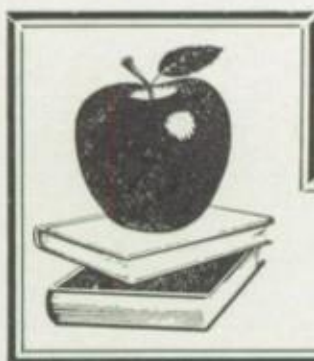

The reunion seems to be the gay and exciting affair anticipated, a wonderful way to start off a new year, and a renewal of many an old and cherished friendship. There are many happy memories . . . "As Time Goes By."

(MARIE SEPRINSKI, PHILLIP MEYER, and RUTH BROWN.)

.. High School Library ..

Our school library has undergone a thorough reorganization operation this year. Credit for this job must go to our student librarians who have devoted many hours of tedious work to this project. As a result our library has again become a functional part of our educational program.

BOYS ABOUT BOBBETTE

Boys About Bobbette is about Bobby Blaylock who, at sixteen, is still more tomboy than young lady . . . to the proud delight of her dad and neurotic distress of her mother.

It is an unhappy coincidence that the Culture Club's annual fashion show, to be held at the Blaylock home, occurs on the same night that Bobby's football team, the Dirty Dozen, has a big game scheduled. All of Bobby's friends are modeling in this event, and Mrs. Blaylock in her innermost heart has yearned to see Bobby in lace and silk and tulle make her appearance down the steps in the spotlight. But Bobby wouldn't think of letting her team down! She is an important part of the team . . . and morale builder . . . especially for Socko, the shy, husky-voiced captain of the team. But things take on a much different perspective when Bobby learns that pretty feminine Frieda Fish is teaching Socko to dance . . . not only Socko, but Shammyneck and Pieface too! It's enough to make a goal-kicker run away from home! And that is just what Bobby does, but the proper bug puts the proper word in her ear and the play has an ending that is hilariously happy. And when you're through laughing and putting on your coat to leave, you realize that Boys About Bobbette says some things that you have been wanting to say . . . maxims for young people and adults . . . Don't be phony . . . Be yourself.

. . Industrial Arts . .

Industrial Arts is a part of general education that concerns itself with materials, products, and processes of manufacture. The learning comes through the students' experiences with tools, machine and materials. Among the results looked for are hobby interests, skills in home mechanics, and consumer knowledge.
